

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We remember and honor the Indigenous People of the World, especially the Yakama Nation whose land we now occupy. They are the original stewards of the lands where we gather, living, loving, working in this landscape still. We give thanks for them and express our gratitude for their witness on how to live a life that is honorable and humble. May we always remember that the Earth does not belong to us, that we belong to the Earth, and that we are all relatives in life. Help us to learn from our past mistakes and be instruments of justice and peace for all people in today's world.
